WHY YOU SHOULD ATTEND?

At The TPP Leadership School, we want your investment to be worth it. In finance, it would be a return on investment, or ROI. In professional development, we think of it as your return on learning, or ROL. Nowhere is our commitment to your ROL more evident than in our Advanced Leadership Program for Next Generation Leaders. This 2 day Advanced Leadership & Management Masterclass is an important forum to discuss modern leadership, management strategies, decision making, delegation & empowerment, global impact, performance management, conflict management, vision, human resource utilization and other related issues. New leaders like yourself who require an extensive exposure in Leadership Training and business Practice are encouraged to learn and share perspectives with other professionals, business owners and senior executives.
